

Peatland Habitat & Biodiversity Crossword 2021

An Chomhairle Oidhreachta
The Heritage Council

Across

2. Mountain Blanket Bog is found above or below 200m?
3. This bogland bird frequently raises its crown feathers.
5. It spends most of its life as a larvae underwater before emerging as a flying predatory colourful insect.
8. Do this in your garden to save Irish Bogs.
10. The upper living layer of a bog is called?
13. Bare peat increases _____.
16. Above water it flowers yellow, underwater it traps insects.
19. What body part of the Viviparous Lizard detaches?
21. The partnership between Lichen and Algae.
22. This country raised the profile of Irish Bogs in the 70s.
23. This bacteria attaches to the roots of Bog Asphodel.
24. The noise a Snipe makes to mark its territory.
27. The pink urn shaped flowers can be seen on Irish Bogs in May and June.
28. This insect eating round leaved plant can be found all over Ireland.
30. The complex of raised bogs in the midlands is known as?
31. Plants remove this from the atmosphere and store it underwater.
32. Hares may eat this in the winter.
34. This piece of equipment is inserted into the bog to measure the water-table.
36. The bubbling call of this native Irish Bird is highly emotive.
37. The ideal water-table of a bog should be within _____cm of the

Down

1. This type of peatland formed in the uplands.
4. This peatland type is alkaline in nature.
6. Raised Bogs started forming in these wet landscape features of the midlands 10,000 years ago.
7. A rare mixture of Birch woodland and Sphagnum Moss
9. Green bog butterfly.
11. One of Ireland's only 3 amphibians The _____ Newt.
12. Compacted plant material 1,000s of years old.
13. Collective term for the values of Irish Bogs.
14. The main bog-building plant.
15. The entire interconnected range of species present throughout Ireland.
17. This spider walks on water and can be found on bog pools.
18. Croaking amphibian.
20. The only protected species of butterfly in Ireland.
23. Raised Bogs get their water from this only.
25. The delicate vine and tasty fruit of this plant grows over hummocks of Sphagnum.
26. There are two types of Blanket Bog, Mountain and ?
29. This activity removes the life blood of bogs.
33. Pale purple flowers from August on acid soil.
35. Raised Bog specialist butterfly.
36. The layers of peat beneath the living acrotelm is known as?

An Chomhairle Oidhreachta
The Heritage Council

